Conditions for passing the course:
Form of assessment:
Continuous assessment The student continues to work in seminars in the form of practical exercises to acquire the skills of practical communication in the Ruthenian normative language. He continues to master the orthographic norm by writing dictations and autodictates, focused on specific grammar rules, which the lecturer will clarify before writing a dictation. Stylistic work (in the range of 1.5 - 2 pages) on a predetermined topic should be presented to colleagues in the PowerPoint program with free commentary, while students notice the normative pronunciation and comment on it, respectively. under the guidance of a lecturer, they discuss the violation of normative pronunciation. Based on grammatical errors in students' work, the lecturer gradually explains the individual orthographic rules. The condition for granting credits is active participation in seminars, submission of all developed topics (a total of 6 topics), completion of all worksheets (or dictations and work tasks). To obtain an A rating (excellent) he must obtain at least 92%, to obtain an B rating 84%, to obtain a C rating at least 76%, to obtain a D rating 65%, to obtain an E rating at least 51%. A student who obtains less than 51% will be graded FX. The final evaluation is calculated as the average of the evaluation of individual evaluations of worksheets and evaluations of the developed topics, and the activity at seminars is also taken into account.
