

DESCRIPTION OF THE FIELD OF THE HABILITATION AND INAUGURATION PROCEDURE

Name of the field of habilitation and inauguration proceeding	Orthodox theology
Name of the study field(s), to which the field of habilitation and inauguration proceeding is assigned	Theology
Name of the study programmes (3rd degree of study), to which the field of habilitation and inauguration proceeding is assigned	Orthodox theology
Name of the study programmes (2nd degree of study), to which the field of habilitation and inauguration proceeding is assigned	Orthodox theology (Joined 1st and 2nd level)

The content of the field of the habilitation and the inauguration proceedings

Name of the field of habilitation and inauguration proceeding: Orthodox theology

The content of HIK is in accordance with the focus of the study field "theology" and is focused and defined in such a way that it corresponds to the main topics of the knowledge core of the study field "theology". The Faculty of Orthodox Theology of the University of Prešov in Prešov defines the field of habilitation and inauguration procedures under the name "Orthodox Theology". Its content is closest to the study field "Theology".

Definition of the field of the habilitation and inauguration procedure

Scholars who are specialists in the area of Christian philosophy and ethics, patristics, history of Christianity, catechetical work, Biblical theology and exegesis, moral theology, dogmatic theology, liturgical theology, pastoral theology, homiletics, canon law, social work and social theology are involved in the process of habilitations with the designation Orthodox theology. These areas fully correspond to the study field 37 „Theology“, as it is defined in the proclamation of the (Ministry of education MŠVVaŠ SR number 244/2019 Z.z. concerning the composition of study fields in Slovakia.

The Department of Habilitation Proceedings and Inauguration Proceedings called Orthodox Theology is assigned to the Department of Theology. The following study programs are carried out in this field at the Faculty of Orthodox Theology of the University of Prešov in Prešov: 1. Orthodox theology (joined 1st and 2nd level), 2. Orthodox theology (3rd degree).

The persons responsible for the development and quality assurance of the field of habilitation and inauguration proceedings

All the individuals who have the responsibility for the development and the assurance of quality in the areas of habilitations and inaugurations, are scholars who are involved in habilitations and inaugurations with the designation Orthodox theology:

prof. ThDr. Ján ŠAFIN, PhD. works in the field of HIP Orthodox theology, field of study: theology; he deals himself to church history and Russian religious philosophy.

prof. ThDr. Alexander CAP, CSc. works in the field of HIP Orthodox theology, field of study: theology he deals with theology and exegesis of the Old Testament.

doc. ThDr. Štefan PRUŽINSKÝ, PhD. works in the field of HIP Orthodox theology, field of study: theology; he deals with theology and exegesis of the New Testament.

doc. ThDr. Miroslav ŽUPINA, PhD. works in the field of HIP Orthodox theology, field of study: theology; he deals with christian anthropology and moral theology.

doc. ThDr. Václav JEŽEK, PhD. et PhD. works in the field of HIP Orthodox theology, field of study: theology; he deals with Byzantine theology, philosophy, history, and Byzantine cultural, historical, and scientific overlaps.