University of Prešov in Presov

English language proficiency report

This report serves as the proof of the English language proficiency and is aimed at all the foreign applicants planning to study at University of Prešov under the ERASMUS programme.

Name:  Home institution:  Country:  Field of study:  To be completed by an English language teacher at applicant's home university (or by a cool International Relations Office)  Erasmus students should be able to follow lectures and seminars taught in English, participate in discutake notes and understand written study materials, therefore B2 level is required. For further informatic see CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference-http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Common European Framework of Reference for Languages#Common levels)  1. How did you evaluate the level of applicant's English? (mark at least one)  Based on knowledge of applicant's study in English at the home university	ordinator at ussions, on, please reference
Country:  Field of study:  To be completed by an English language teacher at applicant's home university (or by a cool International Relations Office)  Erasmus students should be able to follow lectures and seminars taught in English, participate in discutake notes and understand written study materials, therefore B2 level is required. For further informatic see CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference-http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Common_European_Framework_of_Reference_for_Languages#Common_levels)  1. How did you evaluate the level of applicant's English? (mark at least one)	ordinator at ussions, on, please reference
Field of study:  To be completed by an English language teacher at applicant's home university (or by a cool International Relations Office)  Erasmus students should be able to follow lectures and seminars taught in English, participate in discutake notes and understand written study materials, therefore B2 level is required. For further information see CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference-http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Common_European_Framework of Reference for Languages#Common_levels)  1. How did you evaluate the level of applicant's English? (mark at least one)	ordinator at ussions, on, please reference
To be completed by an English language teacher at applicant's home university (or by a cool International Relations Office)  Erasmus students should be able to follow lectures and seminars taught in English, participate in discutake notes and understand written study materials, therefore B2 level is required. For further informationsee CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference-http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Common_European_Framework_of_Reference_for_Languages#Common_levels)  1. How did you evaluate the level of applicant's English? (mark at least one)	ussions, on, please reference
International Relations Office)  Erasmus students should be able to follow lectures and seminars taught in English, participate in discutake notes and understand written study materials, therefore B2 level is required. For further information see CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference- http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Common_European_Framework_of_Reference_for_Languages#Common_levels )  1. How did you evaluate the level of applicant's English? (mark at least one)	ussions, on, please reference
International Relations Office)  Erasmus students should be able to follow lectures and seminars taught in English, participate in discutake notes and understand written study materials, therefore B2 level is required. For further information see CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference- http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Common_European_Framework_of_Reference_for_Languages#Common_levels )  1. How did you evaluate the level of applicant's English? (mark at least one)	ussions, on, please reference
	ollowing
	·ollowing
o based on knowledge of applicant a study in English at the norme diliversity	<sup>r</sup> ollowing
Based on the written examination	<sup>i</sup> ollowing
Based on the oral examination	ollowing
2. Please, state your opinion on the applicant's English language abilities in each of the f skills:
A) LISTENING (mark one)  o None  C) WRITING (mark one)  o None <ul> <li>Recognizing familiar words and very basic</li> <li>Writing short, simple sentences with</li> </ul>	h frequent phrases errors in spelling and structure when people speak slowly and clearly o Writing personal letters and notes a conveying simple information, getting	- speech on familiar matters point he/she feels to be important w	- Understanding extended speech and lectures     errors in spelling and following even complex lines of argument o Writing on academic topics, express o Understand extended speech- understanding effectively	sing views television programmes and films without too o Expressing him/herself with clarity a	• much effort feeling for the style of the language	:
B) READING (mark one) D) SPEAKING (mark one) o None
o Reading very short, simple texts o Communicating in simple and routing <ul> <li>Understanding texts that consist mainly of everyday or job-related language</li> <li>Communicating with some confident familiar routine and non-routine materials.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Understanding articles and reports,</li> <li>to his/her interests and professional</li> </ul>	l field understanding contemporary literary prose o Using the language fluently, accura <ul> <li>Understanding long and complex factual and literary texts, understanding longer technical</li> <li>effectively on a wide range of generative academic, vocational or leisure topi</li> </ul> instructions o Speaking fluently and spontaneous wide range of conversational situati	on
I confirm that the above mentioned student is proficient at the minimum of B2 level and is a follow university-level coursework in the English language.	able to Date
NameSignature

E-mail .....

Position.....