Note: For inter-faculty studies, the requirements and entrance examination dates of the faculty or department providing the relevant programme apply.

3 Terms of Admission

The basic condition for admission to university is the completion of full upper secondary or full upper secondary vocational education. An applicant who fails to prove fulfilment of the basic conditions for admission at the time of verification of fulfilment of the conditions for admission may be admitted conditionally, provided that they are obliged to prove fulfilment of the basic conditions for admission no later than the date set for enrolment. The right of an applicant who has been admitted conditionally shall be terminated if he or she fails to prove fulfilment of the basic conditions for admission no later than the date fixed for enrolment.

Admission to all standard programmes of study, the above programmes of study in philology and the above programmes of study in teaching and educational sciences is subject to an evaluation of the comprehensive results of the secondary school studies and extra-curricular activities. The assessment includes: overall academic performance in high school; academic performance in high school, with emphasis on selected subjects listed for each programme of study; non-specific performance (participation and results in Olympiads, high-school vocational activities, national examinations and certificates in foreign languages, publications and artistic activities in the field, or other relevant evidence); and the type of high school attended.

Information for applicants from abroad

Applicants for Bachelor's degree who have studied at a foreign high school shall deliver a Decision on Recognition of the Equivalence of an Educational Document or a Certificate of Equivalence of an Educational Document Issued by the foreign high school, the so-called Nostrification of the School Leaving Certificate, no later than on the day of enrolment.

A condition for the acceptance of foreigners to study is the demonstration of the necessary competence in the same way as in the case of applicants - citizens of the Slovak Republic.

The application for nostrification - recognition of educational documents is issued by

Regional Office of School Administration in Prešov
Tarasa Ševčenka 3927 / 11
080 01 Prešov
