

DESCRIPTION OF THE FIELD OF THE HABILITATION AND INAUGURATION PROCEDURE

Name of the field of habilitation and inauguration proceeding	Slovak Language and Literature
Name of the study field(s), to which the field of habilitation and inauguration proceeding is assigned	11. Philology
Name of the study programmes (3rd degree of study), to which the field of habilitation and inauguration proceeding is assigned	English Language and Anglophone Cultures, 3rd degree of study, full-time and part-time form of study, program codes: 100871; 100872; 102315 Linguodidactics, 3rd degree of study, full-time and part-time form of study, program codes: 182928; 182926; 182925 Translation and Interpreting Studies, 3rd degree of study, full-time and part-time form of study, program codes: 3957; 12979 Slavic Studies, 3rd degree of study, full-time and part-time form of study, program codes: 12980; 12978 Slovak Language and Literature, 3rd degree of study, full-time and part-time form of study, program codes: 3944; 12971 Slavic Studies – Rusyn Language and Literature, 3rd degree of study, full-time and part-time form of study, program codes: 100788; 102257
Name of the study programmes (2nd degree of study), to which the field of habilitation and inauguration proceeding is assigned	English Language and Anglophone Cultures, 2nd degree of study, full-time form of study, program code: 102151 English Language and Culture (combined studies), 2nd degree of study, full-time form of study, program code: 100393 French Language and Culture (combined studies), 2nd degree of study, full-time form of study, program code: 102317 German Language and Culture (combined studies), 2nd degree of study, full-time form of study, program code: 22942 Russian Studies, 2nd degree of study, full-time form of study, program code: 102134 Russian Language and Culture (combined studies), 2nd degree of study, full-time form of study, program code: 102320

	Slovak Language and Culture (combined studies), 2nd degree of study, full-time form of study, program code: 127339 Slovak Language and Literature, 2nd degree of study, full-time form of study, program code: 17258 Central European Studies, 2nd degree of study, full-time form of study, program code: 127408 Ukrainian Language and Culture (combined studies), 2nd degree of study, full-time form of study, program code: 100213 Hungarian Language and Culture (combined studies), 2nd degree of study, full-time form of study, program code: 100394
--	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

The content of the field of the habilitation and the inauguration proceedings

Name of the field of habilitation and inauguration proceeding: Slovak Language and Literature

The field of habilitation and inauguration proceedings of the Slovak Language and Literature field within the broader philological context includes:

- a) knowledge of the functioning of the Slovak language in relevant linguistic-systemic and communication-pragmatic contexts with regard to the structure, development and function of the Slovak language as a national language (in all varieties and communication registers) in intralinguistic, interlinguistic, extralinguistic and all other relevant contexts, both in diachronic and synchronic projection;
- b) knowledge of literary-historical, literary-theoretical and literary-critical aspects of Slovak literature with regard to its development, functioning and links with other literatures.

Definition of the field of the habilitation and inauguration procedure

The field of Slovak Language and Literature HIP is closely related to the main topics of the core knowledge of philology, mainly through the areas related to:

- a) structure, historical development, social position of the Slovak language in a broader, social, cultural and pragmatic contexts, on the Slovak language in linguistic and communication interaction with other languages in diachronic and synchronic contexts, as well as in connection with language education and development of communication and pragmatic competences and skills with regard to production (speaking, writing), as well as reception (listening and reading comprehension);
- b) acquiring knowledge of the theory of literature, literary science methodology and history, cultivating interpretive skills when working with literary texts and written records from various communication spheres; analysis, interpretation and editing of texts of literary and cultural-historical works and sources.

The persons responsible for the development and quality assurance of the field of habilitation and inauguration proceedings
prof. Mgr. Martin Ološtiak, PhD., Professor doc. PhDr. Peter Karpinský, PhD., Associate Professor prof. PaedDr. Jana Kesselová, CSc., Professor prof. Mgr. Martina Ivanová, PhD., Professor prof. PhDr. Juraj Rusnák, CSc., Professor