

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am pleased to take this opportunity to introduce our company Modern Polyglots Ltd, founded in Ireland, and to offer the students of your university the possibility to develop their professional careers as interns in our company.

Modern Polyglots was set up in Cork, and as a fast-growing company, it expanded its services to Limerick and Dublin. As a leading translation agency, with more than 24 years of experience, the agency embraces all languages and subject areas offering professional and high-quality services. We offer certified translations and interpreting services, as well as legal advice. This year we will re-open Language school together with our partners in order to give our interns more possibilities to improve their languages skills.

Modern Polyglots is interested in the involvement of young specialists in its business and therefore offers unpaid internships to students, who wish to work in spheres of translations, interpreting, legal advice and web-development or as marketing researchers and accountants to apply and improve their skills.

Please note, an exception is done only for the position of ENGLISH LANGUAGE TEACHER, that may start immediately. Students showing high standard of teaching may be invited for part -time and full -time positions in Language school for adults at the end of their Internship not less than 3 months length.

This programme is an opportunity for all people who have a degree and are willing to improve their English, the second-most spoken language in the world. It will also help them to gain better professional skills, as we can offer them to work with us or with another of the best and biggest 100 Irish Companies.

All that the students interested in our internship need to do is:
