

Challenges for the contemporary Church in the context of the Apostolic Letter PATRIS CORDE

GREEK-CATHOLIC THEOLOGICAL FACULTY UNIVERSITY OF PREŠOV
in cooperation with THE GREEK-CATHOLIC ARCHBISHOPRIC OF PREŠOV organize on September 22, 2021

an international scientific conference, with the intention of bringing the message and service of St. Joseph for the present time and the identity of nowadays Christian in an interdisciplinary perspective

On the occasion of the 150th anniversary of the declaration of St. Joseph as the patron saint of the universal Church, Pope Francis declared the year of St. Joseph. Inspired by the Apostolic Letter Patris Corde, the aim of the conference is to discuss current socio-religious challenges for the Church. The letter is based on the current context of contemporary society, which is increasingly showing signs of moral, spiritual and religious distortion

Message of St. Joseph can be an inspiration for many Christians and their involvement in the renewal of the spirit in various areas of social space (interpersonal space, family, upbringing, education, economic-economic area, politics). It is a challenge to build a culture of encounter and a community of love, mutual respect and humility

Location: Greek-Catholic Theological Faculty UNIPO, auditorium A1

Registration: <https://forms.office.com/Pages/ResponsePage.aspx?id=rwPRDPxiCEKgKd5YGN4dgETsaF1muJ1li-sjngRIX35UNUw1NzVXR1VSRko1NDIDRzVSTIRJREIWSy4u>

Those interested in speaking at the conference are invited to report their topics and abstracts by July 30, 2021. Papers from the conference will be published in the faculty scientific journal Theologos.

There is no participation fee.

In the event of an adverse pandemic situation, the conference will take the form of a video conference.

Contact the organizers:
maria.kardis@unipo.sk
daniel.slivka@unipo.sk

