

Home cooperation

Cooperation of Greek Catholic Theological Faculty of Prešov University in Prešov with workplaces and universities in Slovakia plays an important role in the faculty development. The conferences, seminars and exhibitions are organized and educators participate actively. They also create working teams focusing on obtaining and implementation of home and international science grants. Teachers from partner institutions are invited to have guest lectures and to take part in other academic activities too.